

8 The Lord sends a message against Judah,
And it falls on Israel.
9 And all the people know it,
That is, Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, Asserting in pride and in arrogance of heart:
10^a The bricks have fallen down,
But we will rebuild with smooth stones;
The sycamores have been cut down,
But we will replace them with cedars."

They slice off what is on the right hand but still are hungry,
And they eat what is on the left hand but they are not satisfied;
Each of them eats the flesh of his own arm.
21 Manasseh devours Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasseh,
And together they are against Judah.

idols?"
12 So it will be that when the Lord has completed all His work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, He will say, "I will punish the fruit of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria and the pomp of his haughtiness." 13 For he has said,

For though your people, O Israel, may be like the sand of the sea,
Only a remnant within them will return;
A destruction is determined, overflowing with righteousness.
23 For a complete destruction, one that is decreed, the Lord GOD of hosts will execute in the midst of the whole land.

FALL SCRIPTURE CALENDAR

Eat This Book

Good habits often take a combination of time and discipline. Throughout history, Christians have regarded Holy Scripture as not only a good habit but a holy habit. Reading Holy Scripture can make us more holy. As a result, Christians have employed many different practices to keep them accountable.

For the next 13 weeks, let's cultivate together the holy habit of reading Scripture. Try to reserve a little time each day to read the chapter provided in the calendar below. When you finish, place a big "X" over that day as a reminder that you completed the reading. As the black X's accumulate, you'll develop the discipline to keep reading. More importantly, I hope you'll also encounter God in a new way through reading Holy Scripture!
